INDOOR

OUTDOOR

A still life photograph featuring a lush green plant with broad, glossy leaves in a simple, cylindrical grey pot. The plant is positioned on a light-colored wooden surface. In the foreground, a shallow wooden bowl with a matching lid is placed, the lid resting on its side. To the left, a thick white rope is intricately knotted and draped vertically. In the background, a wooden molecular model is partially visible. The overall aesthetic is clean, natural, and minimalist.
